A MESSAGE FROM THE HOST CEO

On behalf of the Boca Raton Police Services Department, I welcome you to Boca Raton, Florida for the July 2008 C.A.L.E.A. Conference. We are extremely excited to have been selected as a host for this event and truly hope that your stay with us is pleasant and enjoyable.

With a population of over 85,000 residents, Boca Raton is located at the southernmost point of Palm Beach County. Geographically, the City encompasses 29.6 square miles, including 5 miles of ocean frontage. With its multitude of golf courses, waterways, beaches and luxurious shops, Boca Raton has something for everyone. Our conference site, the Boca Raton Resort and Club, is one of the country's premier destination resorts. This four-diamond luxury resort is set on 456 acres within a backdrop of casual elegance and historic opulence. Some of the amenities include two 18 hole championship golf courses, several pools, three fitness centers, and a variety of dining options. The resort is accessible from all three major airports.

From the opening session to the celebration banquet, I am sure that all of our Boca Raton Police Services Department employees will make your stay in Boca Raton, Florida an enjoyable one. Please let any of our committee members know if you have any questions or need anything during your visit. We are excited about this opportunity to be your host in our beautiful city, and we are certain you will have a memorable experience in Boca Raton, Florida.

Sincerely,

The West Palm Beach Police Department

There has never been a better time to join the WPBPD. The Department is modernizing management, improving technology and updating training. WPBPD is experiencing an unprecedented crime reduction. The WPBPD is making history by making West Palm Beach the safest city in America and you can be a part of it. Police officers develop expertise in everything from computers to community organization. There are no glass ceilings or dead ends. You can go as far as your energy and determination will take you.

The WPBPD is the largest full-service police department in Palm Beach County policing the city with three Divisions; North, South, and a Western Division. It also includes an active Downtown Entertainment Unit that incorporates the Clematis Street and City Place corridor as part of our busy Southern Division. West Palm Beach is 52 square miles in size and includes a 24 square mile Water Catchment area, which requires a diverse policing approach as a city this size must encompass many specialties.

Since 1992, the WPBPD has been engaged in a department-wide, full-scale strategic problem oriented policing philosophy that has placed the highest priority on quality of life issues affecting our service community. With an annual budget exceeding $49 million there are 310 uniformed officers of all ranks and approximately 150 civilians, which include Dispatch Operations, Community Service Aids and Crime Scene.

There has never been a better time to join the WPBPD. The Department offers benefits, varied work assignments, and unlimited opportunities. It doesn't tie you to a desk. It takes you out in the community to meet people and resolve real world problems. You see tangible results and build a set of problem solving skills you can take anywhere. Uniform patrol the backbone of the WPBPD. A Police Officer is a multifaceted individual with extensive training in community affairs, crime prevention, investigations, narcotics enforcement, forensic science, law and youth relations.

The West Palm Beach Police Department is looked upon as a leader in law enforcement technology within Palm Beach County. Many of our officers become specialists in Aviation, Traffic, Training, Crime Prevention, Criminal Investigations, Drug Enforcement, Detective Bureau and much more.
